Arrival of the "ARABIA."

FALL OF DELHI.

New York, Nov. 12, 1857.
The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool, at 8:30 a. m., of the 31st, arrived at 7 a. m. clock this morning.

The vessel is a first class, and after 6 days of oblation, returned on the 20th of September of the entire city.

Numerous inquiries were made among the crew of Delhi, and two sons.

British loss killed and wounded, up to the 16th, including 50 soldiers.

General Wilson ordered to quarter to be given, but women and children spared.

Outraged returned Havelock at Cawnpore. The latter started for Lucknow, which places the Garrison gaily out at sea.

There were fears of a new outbreak at Meerut, and a conspiracy to restore the British.

Accounts from the Bombay provinces are favorable, although a few cases of disaffection occurred.

A serious plot had been discovered to murder the Europeans, at Karachi, and elsewhere.

Considerable reinforcements had arrived at Calcutta.

Markets at Calcutta were dull.

Bombay market was dull.

The rice markets were all stagnant, and prices much lower.

Cotton 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 lower.

Four 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 lower.

Corn declined 1/4.

Arrival of the "ARIEL."

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NOTHING FURTHER FROM INDIA—LAUNCH OF THE "GREAT EASTERN"—MORRIS MARKET IN MANCHESTER.

St. John's, N. B., Nov. 14.

The Ariel, from Southampton, was loaded off Cape Verde last night by the news yacht of the Associated Press.

On the 4th, and brings London and Liverpool's edition of that day. She has over 100 passengers, and 24 crew.

The news by this arrival to us of an important submission. By the return of Lucknow and the report of Mrs. Sahib, the last spark of the insurrection will be extinguished.

All that will be left, therefore, for the 49,000 British soldiers to do, will be to purify the air of that stream of blood and mutiny which will hover over the north-west provinces for some time to come.

Considerable reinforcements had arrived at Calcutta.
